Muhammad Rafiq

Full-Stack Developer (MERN) | Proficient in MongoDB, Express.js, React, Node.js, TypeScript, Next.js | UI/UX (Figma) Enthusiast | Creating Robust & Scalable Applications

Peshawar District, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Pakistan

Summary

As a passionate Full-Stack Developer specializing in the MERN stack, I bring a wealth of expertise in MongoDB, Express.js, React, Node.js, TypeScript, and Next.js. With a keen eye for detail and a strong foundation in both front-end and back-end technologies, I thrive on creating robust and scalable web applications that deliver exceptional user experiences.

Key Skills and Expertise:

Full-Stack Development: Proficient in the complete MERN stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React, Node.js), I build seamless and efficient applications from the ground up.

TypeScript & Next.js: Leveraging TypeScript for type-safe code and Next.js for server-side rendering, I ensure high performance and maintainability in my projects.
